

THE PARK SCHOOL

Dear Sadhna,

As you think back about Tuesday evening can you believe that almost singlehandedly you prepared dinner for about 300 people, and they loved every bit of it - and you, too, for doing it! You are remarkable, Sadhna, and it was a pleasure to work with you. I even had fun preparing the famous pappadums. It was so like you to keep trying different methods of baking until the results were perfect. Many guests remarked that they couldn't recall a lovelier party or more delicious dinner.

Thank you, Sadhna, for your
